SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

A Meadow Vista felon who failed to register as a sex offender was arrested carrying a loaded handgun, an electronic stun gun and a methamphetamine pipe Tuesday afternoon in Meadow Vista.

David Lavoy Stubblefield, 39, was wanted on an outstanding warrant and for failing to register annually as a sex offender. Placer County Sheriff's Lt. George Malim went to Stubblefield's home to serve the warrant Tuesday, but the suspect wasn't home. Shortly after, Malim was driving on West Weimar Crossroad and noticed a vehicle similar to that of Stubblefield's. He followed the vehicle, which was being driven erratically. At one point, the wheels on a trailer that Stubblefield was towing went into a drainage ditch.

Stubblefield was arrested and a search of his truck revealed a loaded .32-caliber pistol, a stun gun and the meth pipe. He was transported to the Placer County Jail and booked on the warrant for failing to complete a 30-day jail sentence. Additionally, he was booked on suspicion of being a felon in possession of a firearm, failure to register as a sex offender and possession of narcotic paraphernalia.
